The fisheries workshop offers current research and information related to the status of the Lake St. Clair fishery.

Michigan Sea Grant and Michigan State University Extension, in partnership with the Department of Natural Resources Fisheries Division, will be hosting an evening regional workshop dedicated to Lake St. Clair.

The workshop is open to the public, and will provide valuable information for anglers, charter captains, resource professionals, and other community members interested in attending.

The workshop will include five presentations:

Invasive species of the Huron-Erie Corridor

Dr. Rochelle Sturtevant, Great Lakes Regional Sea Grant Extension Educator, NOAA Great Lakes Environmental Research Lab (GLERL).

Ongoing efforts of Macomb County to improve access to Lake St. Clair

Gerard Santoro, Macomb County Program Manager - Land and Water Resources Group.

Effects of fishing on bass: Lessons from Michigan and Connecticut

Jan-Michael Hessenauer, Fisheries Research Biologist, MIDNR Lake St. Clair Fisheries Research Station.

Lake St. Clair Fishery Status Update

Mike Thomas and Todd Wills, Fisheries Research Biologists from the MIDNR Lake St. Clair Fisheries Research Station.

Are there really too many muskie in Lake St. Clair?

Mike Thomas and Todd Wills, Fisheries Research Biologists from the MIDNR Lake St. Clair Fisheries Research Station.

You are invited to participate!
